

English folk club reviews 2012 tour

"A spellbinding evening of five star entertainment - superb musicianship, wonderful vocal harmonies and a very friendly rapport with the audience"

Reading's Folk Song & Music Club

"Rip-roaring vocal harmonies, lyrical ballads, thoughtful arrangements and lashings of good clean humour are the winning formula offered by North Sea Gas. Striking an instant rapport with our audience, it was one of those special nights that will live long in the memory. At the end of the performance. I stood at the exit to say goodbye and thanks for coming to our audience, and it was easy to see from the mood and comments that they had enjoyed a wonderful night's entertainment"!

Nick Westcott (Eastbourne folk club)

"Thank you all for the brilliant evening [2/3/12], that you gave us. You entertained us with your excellent music, humour, and banter. A wonderful all round performance. that made Seaford Folk Club 'rock'. [not normally allowed in folk clubs]

John Cave (Seaford folk club)

Entertaining and humorous, the lively banter from North Sea Gas perfectly complements the great selection of songs and tunes this trio gave us. Traditional and recent material was well mixed, with changes of tempo and mood keeping the audience well entertained. With wonderful voices, superb playing and a variety of musical instruments, their experience and rapport with the audience gave an excellent evening which left us feeling upbeat all the way home.
